

dermanostic

Dermatological treatment incl. diagnosis, therapy recommendation and private prescription via app within 24h!

dermanostic is Europe's leading online dermatologist practice:

- Dermatological treatment incl. diagnosis, therapy recommendation and private prescription within 24h
- Treatment of skin, hair, nail and venereal diseases
- Telemedicine provider specialized in the image-text method: asynchronous treatment with self-taken photos and filling out an anamnesis sheet
- Large medical team with experienced specially trained dermatologists, nurses and a team of experts with other special disciplines (gynecology, urology, pediatrics, etc.)
- Support for further treatment in severe cases
- Cooperation with dermatologists and general practitioners, nursing homes and hospitals
- Particularly suitable for people in rural and structurally weak regions and immobile people
- Profitable for people who would otherwise have to wait a long time for a dermatology appointment (national average 38 days)
- Treatment costs of 25€ according to the German scale of charges for physicians (GOÄ), reimbursement by (private) health insurance companies
- First TÜV-data protection-certified teledermatology provider
